ORIENTAL ADVICES.

News Brought by the Steamer Empress of Japan.

REPORTS UP TO OCTOBER 12.

Extent of the Yakushan Battle—A Fierce Fight at Sea—Vessels Destroyed by Torpedoes—Dastardly Outrages Perpetrated Upon Foreigners—Japan Wants No Foreign Interference With Her Plans.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 25.—The steamship Empress of Japan has brought the Oriental advices to Oct. 12, as follows: All Japan is in a fever of excitement awaiting news from General Oyama's expedition which is supposed to be directed toward some point on the Chinese coast within the Gulf of Pei-Chi-Li.

Reports of landings at Port Arthur, Wei-Hai-Wei and other localities are already circulating in Japanese newspapers. From the beginning the Japanese authorities have been determined to allow no inaccurate records of actual events to go forth.

Admiral Ito's official report of the battle near Tai-Kosan harbor has been published. It is extremely exuberant in tone and is filled with eulogies of the spirit and fortitude displayed by officers and men.

The Chinese loss in the battle of Yakushan was, killed 700, wounded 252. Two different accounts are published in Yokohama papers with reference to the Chinese troops having erected six forts on the southern bank of the river and 14 on the northern. They have about 80 guns in position and the force assembled to dispute the passage of the Japanese army into Manchuria is about 70,000. All the troops that escaped from Ping-Yang are on the northern bank. Other reports say that the Chinese forces only number 9,000 on the northern bank and a similar number on the southern, and that but eight forts are built so far, but that on the appearance of the Japanese troops they hastily started strengthening their position, evidently intending to act strictly on the defensive.

The Niv Pon publishes an account of an encounter between the Maya Kou and four Chinese ships in the Yellow sea, where the Maya Kou was reconnoitering. A fierce fight ensued, in which the Maya Kou sank one of her opponents and then escaped in a more or less injured condition. As the Maya Kou is a gunboat of but 615 tons, the engagement is regarded as a myth.

Prince Komatsu and Count Kawamura have left for Korea. The prince is a lieutenant in the navy, and has been recalled from Europe to resume his post on the Naniwa Kau. Count Kawamura is a retired vice admiral and it is rumored will take command of the squadron in Korean waters.

Though the Chinese at Ping-Yang were imperfectly supplied with ammunition, they had plenty of money. The aggregate amount of bullion falling into the hands of the Japanese is estimated at 1,184,420 yen.

Navigation in the Shih-tou-sha channel is now very dangerous, 630 submarine mines having been laid. A large junk struck a torpedo recently, and both it and a fishing boat were blown up and the crews destroyed. A Chinese gunboat was also destroyed in the same manner.

The Japanese government has at length consented to allow reporters to accompany its fleet, but only one representative is allowed per ship.

The Japanese government contemplates constructing a naval post at Hamada-Sekishu, situated just opposite the southern limit of Korea.

Hospital arrangements at Hiroshima are very extensive and complete, and the wounded Chinese prisoners are treated with the same care as Japanese. So much so that many Chinese patients show reluctance to leave the hospital and manifest very little patriotic feeling, their chief concern being their arrears of pay.

Sei Gi Un has been appointed to represent Korea in Japan.

A zealous correspondent states that a plot, in which partisans of the Tai-Loon-Kun were implicated, has been discovered. The conspirators intended to raise to the throne Li Yo Shu, grandson of the Tai Loon Kun, and drive out of Korea the pro-Japanese statement. The plot also included an attack on the Japanese residents in Seoul.

Fierce persecutions have broken out in the two southern provinces of Korea against the native Christians. This is headed by Tonghaks, allies of the Chinese in Korea. Already a large number of native converts have been murdered and many robbed and beaten. Pere Jozean, a French missionary, was captured by General Yeh while on the way to Seoul. He and an attendant were interrogated and beaten by the soldiers in the presence of General Yeh. They were afterward seized by six soldiers and hoisted off the ground by their ears. While in this position Jozean was stabbed with a bayonet in the side by one of the soldiers. The prisoners were then thrown on their faces and their heads literally hacked off. General Yeh and staff complacently regarded the whole transaction and then went away without a word, leaving the two headless bodies on the bank of the river. So great is the terror of the Tonghaks that it was two days before the native Christians ventured to bury the bodies.

At Peking and Tien-Tsin great fear is felt by the foreign residents of an attack by natives. The latter appear to have the extraordinary idea that the foreigners are helping the Japanese, and some uneducated Chinese have been heard to assert that in the recent naval battle three French and four Russian ships engaged. Actual attacks on foreigners have been made in Peking. I. T. Headland, professor of mental and moral science at Peking university, was attacked by a mob and stoned and beaten, and had a narrow escape with his life. In consequence the foreign legations are now guarded by marines from the warships.

The British steamer Pathan, which was seized by the Chinese warship Yan Sheng, has been released on demand of the British minister. The Chinese claim that the Pathan had on board two cases of revolvers and one of cartridges for Japan. A bond providing for no carrying of contraband goods was given by her owners.

Telegrams to the Japan Mail from Kyoto, under date of Oct. 6, say a great battle was expected to take place at Ku-Yu within the next fortnight, and that the Japanese reconnoitering column has reached the left bank of the Am Nok river. No enemy was seen on the opposite bank at that date. The Japanese army was at Chong-Ju, a distance of 20 miles from the Am Nok.

Bishop Raimonde of South China and prefect apostolic of the Roman Catholic body at Hong-Kong died suddenly of apoplexy on the 27th.

Fire at San-Miguel, Manila, on the 21st, destroyed property valued at $500,000.

Another case of plague has been discovered in Hong-Kong. It was thought the disease had been rooted out, and serious fears are felt lest another outbreak occur.

No Foreign Interference Wanted.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It is stated that Japan has again rejected the mediation of a foreign power in her dispute with China, while the latter country has expressed her readiness to accept an armistice on any reasonable condition.

WE LIVED TOO HIGH.

The Excuse an Embezzler Offers For His Crimes.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 25.—Ex-Police Judge Charles E. Morris' last words were made public yesterday. John E. Moran, a law student in his office, received a letter from him, written on the day he skipped from here, and dated Galloway, O. It shows the heretofore unexplained cause of his speculations, and how badly the man, who stood so high, is affected by his crimes. The letter is as follows:

GALLOWAY, O., Oct. 17, 1894. JOHN: I have left Springfield never to return. Give Allie (his wife) the inclosed note, and let no one else see it. We lived too high the first four years we were in Springfield. I got in debt and could not get out. Goodbye. God bless you, God bless you, and all my friends in Springfield. I expect to commit suicide any minute.

CHARLES E. MORRIS. From the fact that Morris made an extended tour of the lakes this summer, it is believed he is in Canada, and that he had flight in view when he made the trip. The defaulting treasurer of Pickaway county, who fled to Canada eight or nine years ago, was a warm personal friend of Morris, and many believe it would not be surprising if they should be found together. Crooked transactions of Morris continue to turn up. A sufferer is Miss Julia Patterson, who gave him $400 to invest. This he pocketed as he did $400 Barney Roarick gave him to put in the building and loan association.

Among the sums he borrowed before leaving are: Hon. J. F. McGrew, $600; Postmaster Wallace, $50; John J. Sullivan, $150; C. B. Kissell, $10; Kinane & Wren, $100.

Another theft is just reported. The victim is Mary Huffman of Enon, O., and the amount $510. She gave it to Morris to put in the building association.

RUN DOWN AT SEA.

An Unknown Vessel Sunk by the American Liner Paris.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 25.—Between 1:30 and 2 o'clock Tuesday morning the American liner Paris, which arrived here last night from New York, ran down and probably sank an unknown ship. The weather was very thick at the time, a heavy rain falling. As soon as the collision occurred the Paris was put about and a search made for the ship. After a time the vessel, or a capsized wreck, was reported off the starboard, but sight of it was lost before a lifeboat could be lowered. Nothing further was seen, though the Paris lay off searching until daylight. The steamer sustained no damage beyond having a portion of her rail bent and two wire stays broken.

Sailors on the Paris say that the sailing vessel showed signals of distress after the collision, and that screams were heard aboard of her. It is stated that a white light was seen on board the ship three minutes before the collision, but that no red or green light was visible until after the steamer had struck her. Captain Watkins declines to make any statement regarding the accident, except to the company officials.

Passengers on the Paris criticize the delay of the steamer in lowering a boat and in getting the searchlight working.

The Czar is Drowsy.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch to The Pall Mall Gazette from Moscow says that the czar is suffering from increasing lassitude and drowsiness, and that it is almost impossible to keep him awake except when he is attacked by the nervous spasms which almost amount to convulsions and which add to his exhaustion. On the other hand the sufferer has taken more food and is able to retain it.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 25.—At Parish's gin, near Newport, Wolford Lacy, aged 20, was caught in a shaft and one arm and one leg torn from his body. He died a few minutes later.

PRESIDENT AND EX-PRESIDENT.

Mr. Cleveland and General Harrison Both in New York City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison both arrived in this city yesterday. The former was accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and F. C. Benedict, at whose residence in Greenwich, the president and family spent Tuesday night with Mrs. and Miss Benedict. The party was driven to the house of Dr. Bryant, the president's physician.

Ex-President Harrison went to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where a vast throng of Republican politicians were awaiting his arrival. Soon after reaching the hotel, Hon. L. P. Morton, the Republican nominee for governor, called, and their interview, it is said, resulted in an agreement on the part of the ex-president to make one more speech before his return. There has, however, been no definite announcement to this effect.

In the course of the afternoon Senator Faulkner had an interview with President Cleveland, but declined to state its nature. It was said, however, that they discussed the congressional situation and that Senator Faulkner implored the president to give expression to an utterance on the subject of the New York campaign.

Accompanied by the Bryant family, the president occupied a box at the Broadway theater last night.

White Cappers on Trial.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25.—Twenty-five members of an alleged gang of White Caps, who have been creating a reign of terror in St. Francis county, Ark., were placed on trial at Helena, Ark., yesterday. A jury was impaneled and three witnesses identified several of the defendants as members of a band who applied the torch to buildings on the plantation of Henry Banks and drove the tenants off the place. There are over 100 witnesses to be examined and the trial will continue several days.

Work of Lightning.

TORONTO, O., Oct. 25.—Lightning struck the homes of Frank M. Myers and James E. Edwards, on Danvers street. The bolt descended along the chimney at the former place, burst the stove doors and rendered Mrs. Myers and her little daughter unconscious. At the latter place Mrs. Edwards and daughter were severely stunned. The lightning struck the kitchen, burning the window curtains and tearing off a portion of the roof.

Peculiar Accident.

CHAUNCEY, O., Oct. 25.—At the Crescent mine yesterday while Ed Williams, a brakeman on the Toledo and Ohio Central railroad, was holding a scuffling against an engine to push a car from an adjacent track, the wood broke, and, striking Williams on the head, rendered him senseless, in which condition he remained several hours.

Rutherford P. Hayes Married.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—Rutherford P. Hayes, son of the ex-president, and Miss Lucy H. Platt of this city were married yesterday in Trinity Episcopal church by Rev. Dr. Jones of Kenyon college. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will reside here. Scott Hayes was best man and Miss Fanny Hayes was bridesmaid. The couple were second cousins.

Barns Burned by Incendiaries.

WAPAKONETA, O., Oct. 25.—Yesterday the large barns of John Guenther and Mrs. Ike Robinson were destroyed by fire. Three fine coach horses were burned. In the last few years no less than 20 barns have been destroyed by fire, and all were of an incendiary origin. The loss will reach $8,000, with small insurance.

Republican Clubs of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—The Republican clubs of Massachusetts held its fourth annual banquet and ratification rally in music hall yesterday evening with 1,500 members present and many guests. The banquet was served at 6 o'clock, and was followed by rousing Republican speeches by Republican leaders.

Mysteriously Missing.

FOSTORIA, O., Oct. 25.—John Studebaker, who ran a flour and feed store here, has mysteriously disappeared. He went to deliver a sack of flour and has not returned. He had considerable money on his person, and it is feared he has been foully dealt with.

Minnesota Pioneer Gone.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 25.—Charles Nicholas, a well known Minnesota pioneer and generally known as a prominent railroad, died in this city Wednesday. He has been a resident of St. Paul since 1858 and was a native of Williston, Vt., where he was born in 1832.

Saved the Company's Money.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 25.—R. P. Jackson, agent of the Big Four at Carbon, was sandbagged and robbed last night of $12 personal funds. He had several hundred dollars of the company's money in an inside pocket in his shirt, which the robbers failed to get.

Money Lost in Speculation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Robert Bower is under arrest charged with the embezzlement of $8,200 from the India Wharf Brewing company, for which concern he had been bookkeeper and cashier. The money, it is alleged, had been lost in speculation.

An Old Man Arrested For Counterfeiting.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 25.—Samuel Harmon, aged 63, was arrested yesterday for counterfeiting. He served a term in the penitentiary 30 years ago for forging.

Dropped Dead.

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 25.—John H. Dodd, one of the wealthiest residents of the city, dropped dead.

GLAD IT IS ALL OVER.

Train Robber Searcey Lodged in Jail to Await His Trial.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 25.—Charles J. Searcey, in charge of Robert Pinkerton, reached here yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, having driven back from Calverton in about five hours. Nothing of interest happened on the route, Searcey was cheerful and seemed relieved that the thing was over. He was lodged in jail.

Judge Ashley of Stafford county issued an order naming the jail of Fredericksburg as the place of confinement of Searcey, and there he will stay until the 21st of November, and where the county court will sit and the grand jury find indictments against the train robbers.

Everything Recovered.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—President L. C. Weir of the Adams Express company was seen yesterday in his office and questioned regarding the recovery of the express pouch at Calverton, Va. President Weir said: "We have not opened the bag as yet, and of course I do not know what it contains. But I can tell you now what it should contain. The contents include some bills of lading for cotton and several thousand dollars' worth of railroad receivers' certificates. Of course, the loss on this would be very small, but would cause considerable trouble to our customers and ourselves in replacing them. We have now recovered everything."

NATURAL GAS BLAZE.

Big Four Railroad Shops Burned at a Loss of Nearly $100,000.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 25.—A fire started in the Big Four main shop at midnight, probably from natural gas, and before it was subdued destroyed the shops, the paint shop and the roundhouse. A locomotive fireman discovered the blaze, and succeeded in saving two locomotives.

The main shops were first destroyed and then the west roundhouse, in which there were seven engines. Of these, four were ruined. Eight other engines, five coaches and a lot of freight cars were moved to places of safety. Two coaches and two cabooses were burned in the repair shops. The total loss will be nearly $100,000, insured with Cincinnati companies. The fire also destroyed a lot of tools, and 100 workmen will be temporarily thrown out of employment.

FIFTY MILES OF FIRE.

Destructive Conflagration Raging in Two Counties in Nebraska.

HYANNIS, Neb., Oct. 25.—A fearful conflagration has just swept over the southern part of Cherry county and the northern part of Grant. The fire has burned over a strip of country nearly 50 miles in width, and destroyed haystacks, homes and in some instances stocks.

Two men, names unknown, perished in the flames. The hay of a number of stockmen was burned and a large space of range ruined. At present the fire is spreading and extending farther north. The destruction of property is great, and a number of stockmen will be ruined financially.

Gallery Wrecked by Natural Gas.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 25.—Larrimer Brothers' photograph gallery, in this city, was completely wrecked yesterday evening by an explosion of natural gas. Miss Grace Speakman, a retoucher, whose home is in New Castle, Ind., received fatal injuries. She was buried beneath the debris, and when found was unconscious, with her skull fractured and chest crushed. Ben Larrimer, the proprietor of the gallery, and Alfred Greenman, an employee, were seriously burned and bruised. The property loss will be about $5,000.

Saloonkeepers Making a Protest.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 25.—Several hundred saloonkeepers met in secret session in this city yesterday for the purpose of taking steps to prevent the passage of a proposed law at the next session of the legislature, limiting the number of saloons to one saloon to every 1,000 inhabitants. This would reduce the 31 saloons here to nine. The candidates for the legislature will be called upon and their opinion solicited.

Condemned Prisoner Released.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25.—A number of friends of Bart Carter, who has been sentenced to be hanged Dec. 21 for the killing of Hunter Wilson, went to Mountain Home, Ark., Monday night and liberated him. They procured the keys of the jail from the sheriff's wife, whose husband was out of town, and had no trouble in getting Carter out. He is still at liberty, though officers are searching for him.

A Gleam of Brighter Times.

PORTLAND, Ind., Oct. 25.—It is reported that the Union Trust company of Chicago will furnish the capital to complete the Cincinnati, Union City and Chicago railway. The company is in hard lines at present, with the Lake Erie and Western Railway company threatening to sell 55 carloads of material for non-payment of freight charges.

Arbitrating Differences.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 25.—President Eberhart of the Windowglass Workers' Union of America is here trying to settle differences with the Anderson Glass company. The trouble arises over a demand of the workmen for the same percentage of market money as last year. The company claims it can not pay it.

TERRITORY TROUBLES

Another Holdup Contemplated by the Cook Gang.

SUCH REPORTED TO WASHINGTON.

Attorney General Olney Sends Orders to the United States Attorney and United States Marshals at Fort Smith to Endeavor to Prevent Further Trouble—Secretary Smith's Opinion on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Indian office has received another telegram from Agent Wilson, at Muskogee, I. T., relating to the troubles experienced from lawless men in that section. He says:

"The Cook gang of outlaws in force is camped at Gibson station, eight miles from here, on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road. It is believed that another holdup is contemplated. My police force, such as I get together, is not equal to the emergency, and Marshal Crump, at Fort Smith, Ark., writes that he has no money to keep the marshals in the field for a campaign. Affairs here are in a desperate condition—commerce impeded, business suspended and the people generally intimidated and private individuals robbed every day and night."

Attorney General Olney has sent telegrams to the United States attorney and the United States marshal at Fort Smith to do everything legitimately within their power to prevent the interruption of interstate commerce and the detention of the United States mails. If these efforts fail, it is assumed that the military will be called into requisition.

Secretary Smith was asked what he should recommend to prevent permanently the lawlessness and reign of terror that now exists in the Indian Territory. "Abrogate the treaties; abolish the tribal relations; establish a territorial government, and extend the jurisdiction of the United States over the whole territory," he replied promptly. The secretary expressed the opinion that the local self-government of the civilized tribes was a failure thus far. Their legislatures make laws, but there seems to be no way of enforcing them.

Men who had all along been opposed to the course he suggested, now saw that there was no other way out of the difficulty. He would see that the Indians were protected in all their property rights, but he would have the United States control sufficiently to rid the territory of the outlaws. If a territorial government were established, judges would be sent there to administer the laws and the governor who was appointed, could see that they were enforced.

The report of Governor Renfrow of Oklahoma advises the consolidation of the two territories, saying that the whites would then predominate. This being called to the secretary's attention he said that the white people in the Indian Territory now largely predominated, but they had no voice in the affairs of the government. It was true that in this white population there were many persons who were now causing trouble, but if the United States had complete territorial jurisdiction over the country, they could be driven out, and the better element would prevail.

The secretary said that the intruders now in the Cherokee country should be driven out, and that the department would not interfere further in the Silas Lewis case from the Choctaw country and that it is probable Lewis would be shot.

MADE A CONFESSION.

Alleged Chief Conspirator of the Grand Trunk Express Wreck in Court.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Oct. 25.—John Bodewig, the alleged chief conspirator of the Grand Trunk express train wreck of last July, has made a sensational confession regarding that affair. Bodewig was used as a witness yesterday, in the examination of George W. Johnson, another alleged wrecker. Bodewig's story seems to implicate Johnson, Hall, Knowles, Jewett and Vedder.

He admits that on July 10 he and Knowles stole the clawbar with which the fish plates were removed from the track. Between that date and the 15th he talked with several about it, including those now under arrest. He testified, however, that none of the American Railway union leaders advised any violence as a means of winning the strike. Johnson's examination was adjourned to Nov. 21. It is rumored that Johnson will divulge who his assistants in the job were.

Used a White Man For a Shield.

SMITHVILLE, Tex., Oct. 25.—Frank Scott, an ex-school teacher, and Charles Chappell, a gambler, both negroes, have been at loggerheads, and yesterday morning they met, when Scott fired at Chappell, missing him. Chappell then caught hold of Ed Turner, a railroad brakeman, and held him in front of him. Scott shot and hit Turner above the heart, killing him instantly. Scott walked up to Chappell and shot him through the lungs, and he died in about five minutes. Scott made no attempt to escape, and as feeling for a time ran high, was taken to Bastrop, where he is now in jail.

Fast Railroad.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 25.—The Big Four Southwestern limited broke all records by running from Bellefontaine, O., 143 miles, in 189 minutes, and 15 stops were made, each averaging four minutes. The actual time, including slackening up and getting under headway each time, was 129 minutes.

LET THE VOTERS ANSWER.

"How does it come that when the Democrats went out of power in 1890 the Government had been run for seventy years, and there was but five millionaires in the whole United States, and was a good price, farms free of mortgages, and tramps and strikes were unknown; while after thirty years of Republican rule there are over 5,000 millionaires, land no price, and surfeited with mortgages, strikes on all hands and tramps by the million?"—Public Ledger, August 25th.

Generally fair weather; warmer Thursday evening.

The bolting Louisiana sugar planters are coming back to the Democratic fold. They could not endure their new political allies.

It is amusing to see a Republican candidate hobnobbing with Democrats and telling them what he is going to do for the amelioration of their condition when he gets into office, with their help.

THE Newark (N. J.) Journal says the largest reduction of wages and the worst labor strike ever known in New Jersey occurred during the period between the passage of the McKinley bill and the second inauguration of Cleveland as President. What a "blessing" Republican "protection" was to these workmen!

THE editor of the Public Ledger seems inclined to doubt the statement of the BULLETIN that at the Democratic meeting at Dieterich's Grove the other night "crowds stood up for three hours and a ing began about 7:30 and closed at five min-half listening to the speeches." The speak-utes of eleven o'clock. A gentleman who is a member of the G. A. R. and who has been a good Republican, but who will vote the Democratic ticket November 6th, was present and can vouch for this.

UNDER Republican "protection" tariffs, the silkworkers at Paterson, N. J., were in a chronic condition of strikes against successive wage reductions; so were other textile workers. The operatives in the cotton thread industry were considerably reduced in their wages. The hat-ting industry in Newark, Orange and elsewhere in New Jersey declined in wage-earning at least 25 per cent. The glassworkers in South Jersey had to accept European wages or make place for imported Belgian workmen. The pot-tery operatives in Trenton, were reduced all the way from 20 to 30 per cent. Still the Republican editors tell us a high tariff insures high wages.

DURING the "hard times" and strikes of 1892, the Republicans attributed all of our troubles to over-speculation and to too much credit, and claimed that in the best and wisest of Governments, financial and industrial depressions come every fifteen or twenty years, citing the panic of 1873. They claimed that "hard times" beat Harrison, and would beat any party in power, that the people were unreason- ing and always demanded a change of parties when trade was depressed or wages low. As soon as the Democrats came into power, however, the Repub- licans changed front at once, and claimed that the Democratic party was respon- sible for the hard times, (though it had made no laws and changed none). Now that the Democrats have repealed the Sherman silver bill and substituted the Wilson tariff bill for the McKinley bill and the good effect of such legislation has restored confidence to our financial interests, and there is a greater activity in business than for the last two years, Republican editors are beginning to claim that the business revival is because the people believe the G. O. P. will win this fall. It is a tricky party and is still at its tricks.

THE Treasury receipts during the first twenty days of the present month amounted to $12,874,858, and the dis- bursements $20,587,000, leaving a deficit for the twenty days of $7,702,142. Oh, yes, Br'er Marsh; you'uns are making a splendid record. How the country is prospering under Democratic rule, to be sure!—Public Ledger.

Don't you worry over the condition of the Treasury. Uncle Sam is getting along much better under the new reve- nue law than he did under McKinley's tariff. It is expected that the deficit for this month will reach about $13,000,000, but the deficit for the corresponding period a year ago, when we had a Republican tariff was $29,000,000, $16,000,000 more than it will be this year. That's a pretty good showing, isn't it?

Senator Sherman said in a speech a few days ago: "One objection to the Mc- Kinley law was that it did not provide enough revenue to meet the necessary expenses of the Government."

The new law will make things all right, however, before another year rolls 'round. Oh, yes, we're making a splendid record.

THE wage-earner now finds, even at this early day in the life of the new tariff law, that the purchasing power of a dollar is greater by from 33 to 50 per cent. than it was one year ago. The man who earns $10 per week can now supply himself with the same necessities that cost him $10 a year ago for $7 or $8, thus leaving him $2 or $3 per week to save or to purchase articles his income would not heretofore permit him to en- joy.—Frankfort Capital.

Why don't you tell the whole story? Why aren't you honest enough to tell your readers that the wages of workmen have been reduced all the way from 10 to 40 per cent., and that the wage-earner who is lucky enough to make $10 a week now was formerly getting from $12 to $15 per week.—Public Ledger.

And why don't you tell the truth, and say that wages were reduced under the McKinley tariff, and that many of the highly protected manufacturers have been cutting wages and running on half time, with the avowed purpose of creat- ing dissatisfaction and starving their workmen into voting for Republicans and promising them higher wages if they will do so—bribing them as they are try- ing to bribe the Louisiana sugar planters.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

.....They laugh best who laugh last.

....."The best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft a'glee."

.....The more Democrats see of the methods of Republicans, the less they find in them to admire.

.....What does any Republican candi- date offer a Democrat in exchange for his vote, but a miserable "mess of pottage?"

.....The Democrats who shall vote for Republicans in November will not make any appreciable gap in the ranks of the party.

.....Democrats have been deceived often enough by voting for Republicans, we should think, without taking any new risks on them.

.....It ought to be apparent to any sensible Democrat that the only interest any Republican could possibly have in him is to get his vote.

.....We credit a Democrat, who is one from principle, with having too much sense to believe that any Republican candidate has the Democrat's interest in consideration when he asks his support.

.....Lexington Transcript: "It is the duty of Democrats to aid by every means in their power to make the next House of Representatives Democratic. The next Presidency and the fate of tariff reform may depend on one vote in the House."

ROUSING MEETINGS LAST NIGHT,

At Burr Oaks, Orangeburg and Tuck- ahoe—Appointments For the Rest of the Week.

The Burr Oaks Democratic Club had a rousing meeting at Key's School House last night. Mr. C. L. Sallee, Judge G. S. Wall and Mr. J. N. Kehoe were the speakers. Each of them delivered excellent rally- ing addresses that called forth frequent applause.

Previous to the meeting, the speakers of the evening, in company with Mr. Jno. C. Lovel, Secretary of the County Committee and an untiring and zealous worker for Democracy, were royally entertained at supper at the hospi- table home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mc- Clelland. The table was presided over by the lovely hostess, and was weighted down with good things, the menu being a most sumptuous one. It is unneces- sary to add that the guests thoroughly enjoyed the elaborate spread.

Another meeting was held at Orange- burg last night. The house was packed, and people stood about the doors and windows and listened to the speeches de- livered by Mr. James P. Allen, of Flem- ing, and Mr. F. P. O'Donnell. It was an enthusiastic crowd and the speakers were frequently applauded.

A Republican Comes Over.

Hon. James D. Butts, of Harper's Ferry, one of the leading Republican politicians and until this year an indefatigable stump and campaigner, will take the stump for Hon. William L. Wilson. Mr. Butts is a man of ability, and has been a power in the Republican party. He has had numerous political positions and candidacies offered him by the Repub- licans, notably two years ago when they wanted him to run against Mr. Wilson. He was the Republican West Virginia World's Fair Commissioner. His coming to the Democrats is calculated to bring not fewer than 200 voters of his personal following, besides what he accomplishes on the stump.

DAILY MEAT MARKET.

Corner of Second and Station Streets.

OUR BEST CUSTOMER

England Took Most of Our Wheat, Cotton and Flour Exports Last Year.

And Yet Republicans Insist on Treating Her as a Public Enemy. Let Voters Read

The Calvert Journal of Fredericktown, Maryland, in a late issue says:

"Last year the United States exported 117,121,000 bushels of wheat and 16,620,339 barrels of flour. Of this the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bought 72,513,000 bushels of wheat and 10,361,000 barrels of flour, equivalent in all to nearly 125,000,000 bushels of wheat. During the same year 47,000,000 bushels of corn were exported, of which the United Kingdom bought 18,000,000. The total export of cotton was 2,212,000,000 pounds, of which Great Britain and Ireland took 1,182,000,000, or more than half. A vast amount of cattle and meat products were sold, of which the hated British bought nearly all. Of all the other agricultural products sold by the American farmer a great part is sold to Great Britain.

"The McKinley people told the farmers that if they would stand by the protective policy and foster the manufactures the manufacturers would build up a home market for their products. Under the McKinley bill the wheat crop of Argentina grew up and the price of wheat at Baltimore went down from $1 a bushel almost to 50 cents. If Great Britain had not bought the great amount of wheat she did, wheat would hardly have been worth harvesting. If she had not bought half the cotton crop, the colored population of more than a half dozen States would have been deprived of their livelihood. In short, without Great Britain as a customer the American farmer would have been without any market for surplus products.

"And yet Great Britain is regarded and treated by the Republican press as a public enemy. Why? Because she competes with our manufacturers. Mr. William L. Wilson represents a constituency three-fourths of whom are engaged in agriculture and grazing. And yet he is accused of being unpatriotic for accepting the hospitality of the best customer of his constituents!"

FROM THE OIL FIELDS.

Money Subscribed to Sink the Well Deeper—A Lively Interest in the Matter.

Interest in the discovery of oil at the Ruggles camp grounds is still increasing. The directors met on the grounds again one day this week to perfect arrangements to push forward the work of driving a new well and to go down a good depth in order to reach, if possible, the main body of oil. Some $550 was subscribed on the grounds, and a number of parties at Tollesboro are negotiating for an interest. Quite a number in Maysville are asking for stock also, with the understanding and agreement that they get benefit to the amount of their subscription if oil is found in paying quantities. The driller of the well is taking a liberal share of stock himself, because he is very sanguine of success, and thinks he will strike plenty of oil at a depth of 600 feet.

On Tuesday a gentleman came down in a hack from Vanceburg and was driven to the grounds. He took away with him samples of the oil, but refused to tell who he was or what firm he represented.

The directors are hopeful of either striking a paying flow of oil or gas, or else a good paying mineral well, and they hope the people of Maysville will lend a helping hand, as the camp meeting directors are not able, of themselves, to prosecute the work themselves. The stock is put at $5 per share, and the holder gets an interest to the amount of his subscription, whatever the products may, oil, gas or mineral water.

CARLISLE MERCURY: "While Mrs. Matt Archdeacon was taking a horse to pasture Saturday afternoon he became playful, and pulling away from her, he instantly wheeled and kicked her in the face, breaking her lower jaw in two places and loosening several teeth. While suffering considerably she is getting along extra well."

MR. GRIFFITH and his excellent company will fill an engagement at the opera house Wednesday next, in Goethe's poetic sermon, "Faust," Mr. Griffith enacting the role of Mephisto. The mechanical, scenic and electric effects will be complete in every detail and are sterling adjuncts to what will be a most excellent performance.

THE General Christian Missionary Convention of the Christian Church is in session at Richmond, Va. The annual report of Rev. J. H. Hardin of the Board of Managers shows number of missionaries, 50; baptisms, 1,777; total additions, 2,854; churches organized, 14; amount of money raised by men in the field, $66,955.97; receipts by the Corresponding Secretary, $21,639.04. There were 580 more baptisms than for the previous year, and 492 more additions from all sources.

THE most remarkable crop of tobacco ever raised is told of in the Owingsville Outlook: "In 1893 George Steel raised a small patch of about 1,000 plants of tobacco in the Brooks woods tract, west of town. He cut the tobacco that year, and in the spring of 1894 plants came up from the roots, which plants grew so thickly that he concluded to cultivate them. He topped them at the time of the big snow in May. He cut the tobacco in June, leaving some plants that ripened the seed in July. In the latter part of August he cut another crop from the same roots, making the third crop from the original plants. The tobacco is small, but is fine and bright."

The Czar Reported Better by His Physicians.

A FRENCH PHYSICIAN SUMMONED.

An Operation May Be Performed After a Consultation—Official Dispatches Silent on the Subject of the Wedding—Trouble Predicted Over the Czar's Successor—The Latest News From Livadia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—A bulletin issued from Livadia at 8 o'clock yesterday evening, and signed by the five doctors in attendance upon the czar, says: "During the day his majesty showed no signs of somnolence. His appetite and spirits are better. The oedema of the feet has somewhat increased."

The dispatch says the sacrament was partaken of by his majesty on Sunday, and this is taken to indicate that his condition is not as serious as would be supposed from the prior dispatches stating that the last sacrament of the church had been administered to him. The dispatch that makes this statement mentioned no dates on which the sacrament was partaken of, and the supposition here now is that the czar simply partook of holy communion on Sunday, as is his custom.

LONDON ADVICES.

Specials to Several Different Papers Tell the State of Affairs.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to The Times from St. Petersburg says that among the various rumors in circulation there is one to the effect that Professor Bergmann, the well known German physician, has declined to go to Livadia to attend the czar, and that a French physician has been summoned with a view to the possibility of an operation if it be found that only one of his majesty's kidneys is affected.

Detailed accounts are given of the will of the czar, but nothing authentic can possibly be known beyond the official bulletins. Even the ministers and ambassadors received no other information than is contained in the bulletins. It is true, however, that since the 18th of the current month all the state papers have been signed by the czar's order.

The minister of finance has telegraphed to the president of the Odessa Exchange begging him to call the bankers and representatives of financial firms together and appeal to them for the abstention, under the circumstances, from all speculation, especially the purchase of gold and also do their utmost to prevent depression of the rouble and state funds.

A seditious proclamation or appeal to the people is circulating secretly through the post here. The origin of the proclamation is unknown, but it is evident that its authors have taken advantage of the exceptional circumstances that now prevail. The document is dated Feb. 19, the anniversary of the emancipation of the Serfs, and is signed "The Party of Russian Rights." It demands that the rights that a despotic government has withdrawn be restored.

Nothing is said in the proclamation of the illness of the czar, but the present moment is referred to as propitious for securing liberty of the press and conscience. An election, etc., is demanded. No importance is attached to the appeal.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily News says that the official bulletins do not represent the gravity of the czar's condition. Temporary relief by tapping, he adds, means nothing. It is the general opinion that his majesty is already dying. It is known that his unconsciousness lasted several hours.

It is not known whether the wedding of the czar's wife and Princess Alix occurred or not. This silence is ominous. It may be that a surgical operation has delayed the ceremony. Persistent rumors are in circulation of mournful sick-bed scenes and other touching incidents.

Princess Alix, it is said, is still waging a desperate struggle against the fanatical zeal of the orthodox clergy, who insist upon her declaring that the Evangelical faith is accursed. The princess can not be persuaded that the matter is a mere formality, and demands that she may be excused from pronouncing the words in question.

The correctness of these rumors can not be vouched for and the fact is only mentioned that they are in circulation and are receiving fresh nourishment from the absence of news about the wedding. However, as news from Livadia generally takes considerable time in coming, news of the marriage may still be expected.

A dispatch to The Daily News from Berlin states, that according to telegrams received in Darmstadt, the czar slept well Tuesday night. Yesterday he joined his family at dinner. In the afternoon, as it was beautiful weather, he was carried onto the terrace, and later a family council was held.

The servants who accompanied Princess Alix to Warsaw, where she met her sister, Grand Duchess Sergius, have returned to the Russian capital. At Warsaw there were a number of Russian servants, who entered upon their duties as soon as the princess arrived. It was evidently not wished that the Germans should go to Livadia and bring back with them a knowledge of the state of affairs at the Russian court.

All telegrams from Livadia go first to St. Petersburg, where they are subjected to the scrutiny of the censors.

Only Exchanged Rings.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Berlin correspondent of The Telegraph wires that he hears that it is probable that only an ecclesiastical betrothal and exchange of rings occurred yesterday between the czar's wife and Princess Alix. Such a betrothal, according to the eastern church, is as indissoluble as a marriage. No announcement of such a ceremony, however, has reached the Russian embassy in Berlin up to this evening.

Suicide and Insurance.

For some time past there has been considerable discussion among the officers of European insurance companies respecting the marked increase in suicides, and the question has been raised whether the elimination from insurance policies of the clause dealing with that subject has not tended to encourage self destruction. The leading insurance journal has been collecting the opinions of the principal corners. They are unanimous that the idea of benefiting their heirs never enters the minds of those who take a short and unnatural road to the undiscovered country.

Riley, the Crank, in a Hospital.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Harry R. Riley, the crank, who has been writing letters to Chauncey M. Depew, the Vanderbilts, Pullman and numerous New York and Chicago society leaders, was committed yesterday from the Tombs to Bellevue hospital. Riley was arrested on Monday in Newark, N. J., while loading a revolver during a parade of the striking cloak makers. He was discharged by the police justice in Newark as a harmless crank. He returned to this city and was arrested for examination as to his sanity.

Four Fishermen Drowned.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 25.—The fishing schooner Dora A. Lawson, which arrived yesterday from the banks, reports the loss of four of her crew. On Sept. 21 Frank Mullowney, aged 18, a native of Witley Bay, N. F., and John Dooley, aged 50, were drowned by the capsizing of an overloaded dory. Thomas Sullivan and Patrick Shea of Boston, both about 25 years old, were drowned about Sept. 1 while off in a boat.

Increase in the Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $111,407,351; gold reserve, $80,023,028. Yesterday's increase in the gold reserve of over $500,000 was caused in part by the receipts at the New York subtreasury of $200,000 in gold to retire the national bank circulation and $100,000 at Philadelphia in exchange for notes.

Death of an Old Sea Captain.

NORFOLK, Oct. 25.—Captain Robert B. Pegram, formerly in the United States and Confederate navies, died here yesterday, aged 84 years. He was in the expedition to Japan in 1852, and in 1855 commanded the American forces which united with the English in operating against pirates in Chinese waters.

Debs Confident of Success.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Eugene V. Debs, the president of the American Railway union, reports every indication of success in his effort to organize a branch of the union in this city.

Death of an Ex-Postmaster.

WINCHESTER, O., Oct. 25.—Ex-Postmaster Joshua Osburn, one of the oldest residents in this city, died last night of catarrh of the stomach. He was 73 years of age.

THE USE OF ANTITOXINE.

Statistics Showing the Power of the Recently Discovered Remedy For Diphtheria.

In the first report given to the public by the board of health in this city concerning the use of the so called antitoxine for the prevention or cure of diphtheria it was stated by Dr. Biggs that the record of 250 cases showed that when the injections were made on the first day of the appearance of the disease the recoveries were 100 per cent, and that 97 per cent of those treated on the second day recovered. There are now accessible more detailed statistics concerning the use of this remedy in certain European hospitals.

For the three years immediately preceding the application of antitoxine in the Emperor and Empress Frederick's Children's hospital at Berlin 1,081 cases of diphtheria were treated, and the mortality was 40 per cent. After the middle of last March 128 cases were treated by the application of the new remedy, and the mortality fell to 13 per cent. It should be borne in mind that all these were cases in which the disease had become established before the injections were made. The physicians in charge of the hospital also inoculated 72 children who had been exposed to the disease, and only eight of these afterward had diphtheria, the disease appearing in a mild form.

While such statistics may not be conclusive, they do indicate that a very valuable agent for the treatment of this disease has been discovered. It should not be forgotten that no one claims that the injections will prevent a fatal result when they are made after the disease has become well developed. The serum of the blood of the immune animal contains a substance hostile to the diphtheritic poison, and it is believed that this substance, when introduced into the system by subcutaneous injection, will overcome and neutralize the diphtheritic poison if the injections are made at a sufficiently early date—that is to say, when the antitoxine is thus applied to persons who have been exposed to diphtheritic infection, but in whom the symptoms of the disease have not yet appeared, it is believed to be an effective safeguard, for the poison in such cases can easily be overcome. This belief is supported by the statistics thus far available. And if the inoculation is made immediately after the appearance of the disease it is almost as effective. But after the disease has become well developed and firmly seated the antitoxine may be powerful enough to retard the progress of it and to ameliorate the suffering of the patient, although it may not prevent a fatal issue. —New York Times.

The electric thrill of health is never felt by those who are run down—out of sorts—poor in blood—badly nourished—dyspeptic. That would be impossible, and so the delight of living is lost!

Brown's Iron Bitters

brings weak people up to the standard of health—feeds the blood—acts on the nerves—strengthens the muscles. It brings the blush of youth to weary women's cheeks—is a boon to the invalid—refreshes and renews life in the aged—nourishes the weak, puny child—briefly said, it gives strength, and strength cannot exist without perfect health. It is a necessity in every family. It does not injure the teeth or cause constipation.

A Buttermilk Well.

Did you ever see a buttermilk well? I mean a well that yields buttermilk. No, there are no buttermilk wells about here that I know of, but I saw one out in northern Indiana once. It was connected with a creamery. There is no market for buttermilk there, and the inhabitants of the town, who can get all the buttermilk they want for nothing by simply going after it, never touch it. As fast as the great revolving churns have precipitated their wealth of golden butter the milky residuum is run off into the troughs that lead to the buttermilk well. From thence it is pumped up to feed hogs, being distributed by a system of troughs among the pens. These hogs are merely kept to utilize the buttermilk, which would otherwise go to waste, and the fatness of these animals so fed defies words. Very little else is given them. Buttermilk pork is said to be superior, especially when supplemented with corn. —New York Herald.
